

LoL Account for SALE!!!

Hello, LoL fans. My name is Keith and I have been playing LoL since November 2010. I am a Level 30 average player and specialize in AP and AD carries. Sadly to say, I'm leaving SEA region soon to further my studies but I do not wish to waste my Garena LoL account by leaving it dormant just like that. I feel that my account can greatly benefit some players and therefore decided to sell my account for an affordable price of RM 180.

Reasons for purchasing my account:

- Can re-establish your ELO if you are locked in ELO hell (my account is unranked)
- Many AP carries and AD carries and with runes suitable for them
- Standard runes are already available
- Great Dominion champions e.g. Jarvan IV, Evelynn, Wukong etc.
- If you are on NA server and have missed the transfer period, this is a GOLDEN opportunity for you! No need XP boosts, straight level 30! =)

I will send the list of all my champions, skins and runes to you after receiving an email from you.

The price is still negotiable, so if you are interested, don't hesitate to drop me a mail at:
